Ways to Show Kids you Care

Do all things with love.
Give them good choices.
Notice when they grow.

CHARACTER COUNTS! EVERYWHERE ALL THE TIME!

CC Word of the Week: Reverence

Definitions of reverence include: a feeling or attitude of awe, respect, and love.

“We see that when activities of life are infused with reverence, they come alive with meaning and purpose. We see that when reverence is lacking from life’s activities, the result is cruelty, violence, and loneliness.” – Gary Zukav

Parent is an Active Verb

We are fortunate at McCarty Elementary School to have the support of our parents and the community. It’s a place where education sparkles and success is a daily event. There is absolutely no end to what may be accomplished for our children and school when we invest our positive energy together. Thank you so much for attending our parent/teacher conferences this year. We also hope you enjoyed the time browsing and shopping with your child at our book fair too! Thank you for your support.

Nurture your children. They are your today and the hope of your future.
Encourage them to grow. - Robert Half
