PDAC Seeks Interpreters for Conferences - Parent-Teacher conferences are fast approaching. There are many instances where an interpreter will be an integral part of a successful parent-teacher conference. If you are available to interpret in your native language for these conferences or for conferences in the future, please send an e-mail to Rachel DePorte, secretary, District 204 Parent Diversity Advisory Council, at rdepo@aol.com. Please include the language(s) you are able to interpret. Currently, we have a need for Korean and Russian interpreters.
